

UCAT Speaker Fund Assessment Rubric

Section	Point Value & Evaluative Statement
	5	3	1
Speaker Expertise	The application establishes this speaker is a leader in the field. Based on the resume/CV, the speaker has experiences and knowledge to speak on the topic. A clear instructional area or presentation topic for the speaker is presented.	The speaker is known in the field. There is some evidence of experiences and knowledge in the field on the resume/CV. A general instructional area or presentation topic is given, but not clearly described.	The prominence and record of the speaker is not substantiated by the resume/CV. The instructional area of presentation goal is not described.
Advancing Teaching at UNO	The application clearly details how the presentation will advance teaching at UNO, both within and outside of the College.	The potential for advancing teaching at UNO is presented, but not completely described or substantiated. The presentation may only be applicable within the specific College.	The application does not present how the presentation will improve teaching at UNO.
Links to UCAT Themes	The author clearly describes the links between the project and the UCAT themes.	The author somewhat describes the links between the project and the UCAT themes.	The author does not provide evident connection to the UCAT themes.
Writing Mechanics	The application is well written with no typos or mechanical errors.	The application is fairly well written but contains some typos or mechanical errors.	Frequent mechanical errors and typos.
Budget (No point value)	Adequately justified and reasonable. Does not request more than the maximum amount.		