How to Navigate US Work Visa Options Workshop
ACDC is partnering with International Programs to host a workshop for international students to learn more about work visa options in the US. Please share with anyone who may be interested in learning more.
Advisors and faculty are welcome to attend, as well!
How to Navigate US Work Visa Options
Friday, February 1, 1-2:30 P.M. 201/205 CEC
Navigating U.S. work visa options without a guide can be challenging. Join immigration attorney, Amy Peck, and advisors from International Programs as they answer questions about work options for international students, including OPT, and provide tips and resources to help you understand the process of applying for jobs in the U.S.

Graduation Information for Spring 2019
March 8th - Last day for filing applications for degrees to be conferred in May 2019
April 18th - Last day to submit Comprehensive Exam results, all Incomplete and In Progress grades from previous terms, and final copies of theses, thesis-equivalent projects, EdS field projects, and dissertations.

I-20 Issuance for New Students
As part of the application and admissions process for international students, all official transcript evaluations and exam scores are required prior to I-20 issuance. In order to issue an I-20 for newly admitted international students who are outside of the U.S., we request that all official documentation be submitted to the Office of Graduate Studies by the following dates:
Spring semester - November 15
Fall semester - July 1
Summer semester - April 15
These dates will allow students to receive their I-20, schedule their Visa appointment, and arrive for the start of the semester.
