

GRADUATE STUDIES HAPPENINGS

GRAD EXPO 2015

Our second annual Grad Expo is this upcoming Wednesday, October 14th from 3:00-6:00 p.m. We are extremely excited to host this event, and we hope that all the departments that decided to participate will have a great time showcasing their programs to potential students! Last year's event was a big success, with over 20% of the 220 attendees applying to a UNO graduate program.

SCHOLARSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

Please share among your graduate students that the Office of Graduate Studies is accepting applications for the following: Helen Hansen Outstanding Graduate Student Award, Dissertation Scholarship, Graduate Thesis Scholarship. For further information regarding these scholarships please visit <http://www.unomaha.edu/graduate-studies/financing-your-degree/scholarships.php>.

GRADUATION/COMMENCEMENT

The last day for students to file their application for degree through MavLINK is Friday, October 23, 2015. The fee to apply for degree by this deadline date is $35. The deadline to submit comprehensive exam results, all Incomplete and In Progress grades from previous terms, and all thesis, thesis-equivalent projects and dissertations submissions is 5:00 pm on Thursday, December 3, 2015. If you have any questions about these deadlines, please contact Alicia Andry at 402-554-2519 or aandry@unomaha.edu.

GRADUATE STUDENT WORKSHOPS

The Office of Graduate Studies is sponsoring several workshops in October for graduate students. On Monday, October 12, 2015, Nate Bock will be presenting "The Art of Balance: Making Wellness a Reality" in CPACS 132 from 4:30-5:30 pm with an open discussion to follow. This is a new workshop that will focus on creating work/life balance and wellness as a graduate student. On Tuesday, October 13, 2015 from 4:30-6:00 pm and on Saturday, October 17, 2015 from 10:00-11:30 am, Travis Adams will be presenting "Navigating Faculty Feedback & the Writing Process" in ASH 150. Snacks will be provided at each workshop. Please encourage your graduate students to attend.
