

UNO Advantage Scholarship Program

Tuition scholarships for an amount up to the difference between resident and non-resident tuition may be awarded to selected students who are non-residents of Nebraska. The number of students receiving tuition scholarships under this competitive program shall be determined at each campus by the Chancellor.

The following graduate students, having met all other requirements for admission, will be eligible for consideration for this tuition scholarship under this program:

Graduate and Professional

1. Entering graduate and professional students who have a cumulative GPA of 3.00 for all previous work attempted at all colleges attended prior to enrollment at the University of Nebraska;
2. Students who enter the program according to the above criterion and continue in good academic standing;
3. Underrepresented minorities or individuals with special talents.

Nominations should be submitted on behalf of eligible students by the department/school graduate program committee (GPC). Nominations should include the following: a letter of support from the GPC, strengths of the candidate, what will the candidate bring to the program and a copy of the candidates resume or vitae, if nominating more than one candidate please list in rank order. Evaluations will be conducted by the Dean for Graduate Studies. Awards will be based, in part, on the likelihood they will contribute to highly qualified students choosing UNO for graduate study. The value of a diverse student body also will be taken into consideration in these evaluations. Thus, with an applicant's permission, programs may indicate gender and/or ethnicity of applicants. Awards will be made to students applying for part-time as well as full-time status.

Tuition waivers under this program may be used only for graduate courses in the students program.

Consult with the cognizant college's deans for further information.
