

INTERNATIONAL EDUCATION WEEK

THE RESILIENCE OF INTERNATIONAL EDUCATION

16-20 NOVEMBER

This year, International Programs will celebrate IEW in new ways. Please join us as we highlight the resilience shown by our faculty, staff, students, and visitors during the global pandemic. This virtual celebration will uplift the importance of maintaining worldwide interconnectedness and continue to strengthen our global engagement efforts amid COVID-19.

International Photo Contest

This year we are asking for you to share photos from your travel abroad. Contestants can submit one photo per category. To enter the contest please submit the Photo Contest Entry Google Form by Saturday, November 14.

Photos will be on exhibit on the International Programs social media pages and website beginning Monday, November 16. Voting will open Monday, November 16 and close Tuesday, November 24 at 5pm. Winners will be announced Monday, November 30.

Cafe Internationale 2.0

Option 1: Participants can create a 1-2 minute TikTok style video preparing one of their favorite dishes.

Option 2: Participants can take photos of the preparation of one of their favorite dishes.

Photos and videos will be spotlighted on the International Programs social media pages beginning Wednesday, November 18 throughout the rest of the month.

Omaha International Students Unite: Nice to “Meet” You

Friday, November 13th | 2:30pm

During a time when many feel disconnected, we invite all international students residing in Omaha together to “meet” one another over Zoom. This will be a casual pop-in opportunity to socialize and engage with other local students. No RSVP required, hop onto the Zoom for as little or as long as you want!

Participating Institutions:
Creighton University, UNO and Metro Community College
