Peacebuilding and Countering Violent Extremism in Central Asia -
A Practitioner's Perspective

TUESDAY, MARCH 27, 2018 12-1PM
CRISS LIBRARY ROOM 231

SAM FIFE

Sam is an up and coming peacebuilder and conflict resolution specialist. He earned a BA in International Studies at Brigham Young University – Idaho and an MS in Negotiation and Conflict Resolution from Creighton University before joining Search for Common Ground, the world’s largest peacebuilding NGO to coordinate a project to research causes and recommend ways to prevent radicalization and extremist recruitment of Central Asians in Russia.