

Study this summer in

IRELAND

Irish Literature & History

Do you want to explore a stone fort first built in 1100 B.C. with a view of the Atlantic Ocean from the edge of a 300-foot cliff? Or have lunch in a pub founded in 900 A.D.? Do you want to walk in the footsteps of James Joyce, Countess Markievicz, William Butler Yeats, Patrick Pearse, or Oscar Wilde? If you do, then join us for the 2018 Ireland Study Abroad tour.

Spend time discovering three of the most beautiful cities in Ireland, and making many wonderful stops along the way. We visit Galway and Killarney in the spectacular West and then travel to Dublin. You will take a ferry to the island of Inis Mór, travel the Ring of Dingle and visit an early medieval church, climb to the top of the Rock of Cashel to see the ruins of a Norman castle, see a play at the world famous Abbey Theatre, and visit the many museums, parks, and yes, pubs, that make Dublin one of the most exciting cities in the world!
