COURSE INFORMATION: DOING BUSINESS IN CHINA

Undergraduate & Graduate | Spring 2020 | Select Fridays on Campus
March 16 - 24 in China

The rise of China is a business story of our time. It has major influence on the world economy and geopolitics. The current trade war with China underlines its significance as a competitor as well as a collaborator. We'll explore the importance of China as a production base and also as a market for multinational firms, including those from the US. Visits to iconic Chinese cultural sites will deepen your understanding of doing business in China.
