

STUDENT PERSPECTIVE

“As a historian, I worried that I would just have to resign myself to experiencing historical landmarks simply through pictures or films. However, now that I have been to and experienced these timeless ruins in person, I realize that there is something so special in being able to witness ancient monuments in modern day.”

COURSE INFORMATION: HISTORY OF EUROPE: POLAND & SLOVAKIA (HIST 2990)

Undergraduate & Graduate | Summer 2020 | Entire Program in Europe
Five Weeks in Poland & Slovakia

Backpack through Europe like you've always wanted to while getting an in-depth study of the history of Europe. This month-long, active program will take students through parts of Poland and Slovakia. Watch a mix of large cities and small towns come alive as you walk through and witness the charm of the region. Students will get the opportunity to dive into the history of the architecture, politics, military, art, trade, and more! Elements of this program and daily schedule will be planned as the class develops. Specific destinations may be changed based on the development.
