COURSE INFORMATION: HISTORY OF THE UK: THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION FROM THE BRITISH PERSPECTIVE (HIST 4900/ HIST 8010)

Undergraduate & Graduate | Spring 2020 | Spring Lectures on Campus
May 9 - May 20 in London

Gain a better understanding of American history from the perspective of the Brits in this History of the UK faculty-led program. Students will receive interdisciplinary lectures in the morning with excursions to places like the Imperial War Museum and the National Archives to gain hands-on experience outside of the classroom. This program also offers extensive cultural visits to Buckingham Palace and Westminster Abbey, the beautiful Regents Park, and the chance to have tea at Kensington Palace. A fantastic way to visit London for an extensive academic experience paired with an inside look at all that London has to offer!
