COURSE INFORMATION: ARTISTS, WRITERS, REBELS: THE WOMEN OF IRELAND’S EASTER 1916 RISING: IRISH LITERATURE

Undergraduate & Graduate | Summer 2020 | Summer Session 1
May 25 - June 5 in Ireland

With a focus on the 1916 Easter Rising, this class will delve into a variety of materials in both the Irish and English languages; consider the political figures involved and the women connected to the cultural nationalism movement; and tackle the construction of Ireland as feminine in textual and visual iconography. While in Ireland, the cohort will visit the Aran Islands, Trinity College, the Abbey Theatre, a Literary Pub Crawl, visit the sites of the Easter rising and more!

STUDENT PERSPECTIVE

Deana, 2018 Program Participant

"The whole experience was surreal, awesome, and inspiring. It was full of breathtaking beauty with a gravity of such immense historical significance which I am still trying to understand - a learning experience beyond that of which I could have ever hoped!"
