

All applicants must submit a completed financial affidavit and supporting bank document before the university can issue a DS-2019. Read the following instructions carefully before completing and submitting this form.

INSTRUCTIONS

1. Complete all three sections on page 2 of this document.
2. Supporting bank documents must be signed, stamped by a bank official, and dated, including official English translations of bank documents in foreign languages. Bank documents are valid for only 12 months from the date they are issued.
3. UNO reserves the right to require additional financial documentation from applicants whose countries impose currency exchange restrictions or other obstacles to the transfer of currency. Applicants from such countries will be notified of specific requirements when they have submitted completed applications.
4. All documents provided in support of the financial affidavit become the property of UNO and cannot be returned.

SPECIAL NOTE

- We can accept the official bank statement and UNO Financial Affidavit via email.
- An international student in the U.S. on an I-20 or DS-2019 may not serve as a sponsor for another F-1 or J-1 visa holder or applicant.
