Graduates,

It is amazing to see so many students graduating from the University of Nebraska at Omaha today. Congratulations! Thank you for allowing UNO to be a part of your journey.

Today marks a culmination of dedication, perseverance, and hard work. The road you have taken here has been one of growth, learning, and personal development. As you stand at the threshold of this new chapter, equipped with knowledge, skills, and experiences, garnered within these walls, I have no doubt that you are prepared to make a meaningful impact on the world.

After crossing the stage, you will step into a new, exciting part of our Maverick community: our alumni network. You are joining a network of outstanding professionals: great community leaders, professional athletes, and ingenious inventors, to name a few. As you embark on your next adventure, you will always be a part of UNO’s story and the Maverick family. You take the relationships you have built here on our campus and bring them with you, and we will watch and celebrate your achievements with great pride.

Seize every opportunity that you can, and always look toward the next horizon. Remember, this is not just a celebration of academic accomplishments but also a recognition of the relationships formed, challenges overcome, and lessons learned beyond the textbooks and lectures. Your journey does not end here, it transforms into a new phase brimming with opportunities waiting to be seized.

No matter how far your next adventure takes you, remember that UNO will always be with you. Because once you are a Maverick, you are always a Maverick.

Get out there and change the world!

Best wishes,

JOANNE LI, Ph.D., CFA

BACCALAUREATE DEGREES WITH HONORS

Grades awarded in all courses taken at all colleges and universities attended are included in computing the Grade Point Average (GPA) for determining eligibility for honors. It should be noted that the GPA included in the student grade reports issued by the Office of the University Registrar reflects only courses taken at UNO, UNL, UNMC, and UNK.

- To all graduates whose scholastic average for their entire university career and at UNO is 3.87 or above, the degree is conferred summa cum laude.
- To all graduates whose scholastic average for their entire university career and at UNO is 3.63 or above, but below 3.87, the degree is conferred magna cum laude.
- To all graduates whose scholastic average for their entire university career and at UNO is 3.51 or above, but below 3.63, the degree is conferred cum laude.
- To qualify for honors, a student must have earned at least 60 semester hours within the University of Nebraska system, 30 hours of which must be completed at the University of Nebraska at Omaha and in which letter grades of “A,” “B,” “C,” or “D” are received.

BACCALAUREATE DEGREES WITH HONORS EXTRA MUROS

These degrees are awarded to transfer students who have not completed the required 60 semester hours of credit within the University of Nebraska system required for cum laude, magna cum laude, or summa cum laude honors.

UNIVERSITY HONORS PROGRAM

The University Honors Program is a Universitywide program providing maximum educational opportunities for students of high ability through specially designed multidisciplinary seminars and participation in an academic level not generally possible in usual curricular offerings.

Honors at UNO began in the College of Arts and Sciences and became Universitywide in 1978. It is governed through the office of the Senior Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs and administered through the Honors Director. All UNO colleges implement the University Honors Program curriculum.

As part of their Honors Program requirements, students undertake a project that results in a Senior Honors Thesis or Capstone or Practicum. Students who have been designated in this booklet as Honors Program students have fulfilled the academic requirements of this program. Honors Program graduates wear red stoles.

HISTORIES

HISTORY OF THE HOOD AND ROBE

Identification of the hood and robe as academic apparel is believed to have originated at the English universities of Oxford and Cambridge during the 12th and 13th centuries. The hoods are a carry-over from a time when monks, who operated these universities, wore them to protect their shaved heads in winter. The robes are an adaptation of the shoulder capes also worn by the monks while collecting alms.

Use of the academic robe came to the United States in 1754, with the founding of what is now Columbia University. In 1895, a commission of university officials adopted a universal code of design and color for the academic garb. The code has undergone several revisions over the years.

Styling of the robes varies for the bachelor’s, master’s, and doctoral degrees, with the width of sleeve borders and length of the hood increasing with each advanced degree. Hoods are not normally used for bachelor’s degrees today. Instead, tassel colors are used to indicate the degree program. All doctoral degree recipients are indicated by a gold tassel.

HISTORY OF THE MACE

University maces symbolize the authority and independence of a chartered university and the authority vested in the chancellor. They are typically carried in at the beginning of a convocation ceremony or commencement.

DEGREES WITH DISTINCTION

In recognition of outstanding academic excellence, the UNL College of Engineering recommends bachelor’s degrees with Distinction, High Distinction, and Highest Distinction.

- Candidates for the bachelor’s degree who have successfully completed the program to which they were admitted and achieved a 3.97 cumulative GPA and above and a recommendation from the department will receive a degree with Highest Distinction.
- Candidates for the bachelor’s degree who have successfully completed the program to which they were admitted and achieved a 3.97 cumulative GPA and above will receive a degree with High Distinction.
- Candidates for the bachelor’s degree who have successfully completed the program to which they were admitted and achieved a 3.89 cumulative GPA and above will receive a degree with Distinction.

Lisa Y. Roskens is the Chief Executive Officer of Burlington Capital, LLC. Under Ms. Roskens’ leadership, the organization was restructured to focus on real estate, agribusiness, and venture capital. Burlington Capital has acquired, financed, and/or managed assets totaling over $7 billion. Roskens presided over the sale of Burlington Capital’s two publicly traded subsidiaries, America First Multifamily Investors (ATAX) and America First Apartment Investors (APRO) and Burlington’s subsequent entry into the venture capital sector. Burlington has recently begun to offer business transition services that help companies take the next step in their growth and development through access to the broader capital markets.

She has extensive experience with international markets, complex projects with government at all levels, and developing entrepreneurial businesses. She is committed to Burlington’s involvement in the community particularly in providing affordable housing for veterans, building a new, state of the art juvenile detention center, and promoting projects that have a positive effect on the community.

In addition to her business endeavors, she has deep ties to equestrian pursuits, including running her own horse farm, extensive work with equine assisted therapy and as part of the team to bring the 2017 and 2023 FEI World Cup Finals to Omaha. She is married to Bill Roskens with two children, Charlie and Mary.
Rolland “RC” Thompson is the founder and CEO of Tactical Air Support (Tactical Air). Founded as a commercial TOPGUN, Tactical Air is redefining government contracting as a non-traditional defense company focused on value-based, innovative, and technology-driven products and services for the U.S. Armed Forces. Tactical Air’s hallmark is their highly upgraded F-5 Advanced Tiger fighter aircraft, where a digital infusion of proprietary capabilities allows a 60s vintage design to replicate today’s most sophisticated threats.

Prior to founding Tactical Air, Thompson served five years in the U.S. Army and 26 years in the Navy. Some of his many assignments and positions included: “Exec” to the Commander, U.S. Strategic Command; commander of an Operational Carrier Air Wing and Strike Warfare Commander during Operation Enduring Freedom where he led the combat flight operations of three carrier Air Wings; Commanding Officer of TOPGUN; and Director of Training at the Naval Strike and Air Warfare Center (NSAWC).

His aviation experience includes two instructor tours at TOPGUN, over 1,200 carrier landings and 7,600 hours in tactical aircraft. He was designated an Army Aviator at 19 and has completed three combat deployments.

Thompson holds a Bachelor of Science degree in aeronautics from Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University, and a master’s in national security strategy from the National War College. He earned an Executive MBA from UNO in 2005.

Thompson is passionate about veteran suicide prevention and has sponsored events supporting the Wounded Warrior Foundation, the Step-Up Foundation, and the Navy SEAL Foundation.

He enjoys sailing, soaring, motorcycling, and outdoor adventuring of any type. He has three daughters and lives in Ponte Vedra Beach, Florida with his wingman/wife Angela.

Ja’Nae Smith was born and raised in Omaha, Nebraska until the age of six. After moving and graduating from Hinckley-Finlayson High School in Hinckley, Minnesota, she decided to move back home to Omaha to start her journey as a UNO Maverick in 2016. Today she will be graduating with her bachelor’s degree in psychology, with a concentration in industrial-organizational psychology. Throughout her Maverick journey, she has been a part of the UNO Student Government and UNO Greek Life. Smith has notably held the position of the first Black female SGA speaker of senate, president and membership intake coordinator of the Tau Alpha chapter of Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc., and president of the National Pan-Hellenic Council.

Her involvement and love for UNO has inspired her to want to pursue a career in higher education and give back to college students just like her. She has made so many meaningful connections with peers and mentors and is thankful for their support and guidance through her time at UNO. Along with being a full-time student, she is also a full-time staff member at UNO and wants to continue to grow professionally within the university. Smith states, “UNO has been home for me. College has not been easy, but it’s taught me a lot about myself and about who I am becoming. For me, being the commencement speaker is not just about delivering a speech to my fellow graduates, but it’s truly a full circle moment for me. It’s an ode to my journey at UNO.”
Julia Boorstin is CNBC’s senior media and tech correspondent based at the network’s Los Angeles Bureau. She is also a contributor to CNBC’s “TechCheck” franchise. Boorstin covers media and tech with a focus on its intersection and technological innovation, and delivers reporting, analysis, and interviews for the network. Previously, she was part of the ensemble for CNBC’s daily program, “TechCheck,” that ran from April 2021 to February 2023. She joined CNBC in May 2006 as a general assignment reporter and in 2007 moved to Los Angeles to cover media.

In 2013, Boorstin created and launched the CNBC Disruptor 50, an annual list she oversees, highlighting the private companies transforming the economy and challenging companies in established industries.

Additionally, she reported a documentary on the future of television for the network, “Stay Tuned... The Future of TV.” She also helped launch CNBC’s ‘Closing the Gap’ initiative covering the people and companies closing gender gaps and leads CNBC’s coverage of studies on this topic.

Boorstin joined CNBC from Fortune magazine where she was a business writer and reporter since 2000. During that time, she was also a contributor to “Street Life,” a live market wrap-up segment on CNN Headline News. In 2003, 2004, and 2006, The Journalist and Financial Reporting newsletter named Boorstin to the “TJFR 30 under 30 list of the most promising business journalists under 30 years old. She has also worked as an intern for the State Department’s delegation to the Organization for Economic Co-operation and Development and for Vice President Gore’s domestic policy office.

She graduated with honors from Princeton University with a B.A. in history. She was also an editor of The Daily Princetonian.

Mike Kemp became UNO’s first head hockey coach on July 1, 1996, and remained there for 12 years. He was elevated to associate athletic director in 2009 and in 2019, was named senior associate athletic director - events/facilities. In 2021, he was named executive associate athletic director.

He oversaw the design and construction of several campus athletic facilities including the conversion of Caniglia Field into one of the premier soccer facilities in college athletics and the design and construction of Baxter Arena.

After two years of play as an independent, the Mavericks were admitted into the Central Collegiate Hockey Conference (CCHA) in 1999. Under Kemp’s guidance, UNO had an average sixth place finish in the 12-team league and earned home playoff games in eight of those 10 years. In their first season, the Mavs defeated 11 of 12 CCHA opponents while ending the season with a runner-up finish at the conference tournament. He was named the CCHA Coach of the Year in 2005.

Kemp began his coaching career in 1976 at his alma mater, Gustavus Adolphus College, where he served as assistant coach from 1976-1981. For 14 seasons, he served as an assistant coach/recruiting coordinator at Wisconsin. He spent one season as the assistant coach/recruiting coordinator at Illinois-Chicago.

He served on the Board of Governors of the American Hockey Coaches Association, was a member of the Board of Directors of the Special Olympics of Nebraska, was a board member of the Nebraska Sports Council, and served as a board member of the Omaha Sports Hall of Fame.

In 2009 he was inducted into the Omaha Hockey Hall of Fame and was inducted into the Omaha Sports Hall of Fame in 2013. In 2020, Kemp received the NCHC Commissioners award for leadership to hockey. Kemp and his wife, Julie have two married daughters, Emily and Sarah, and six grandchildren.

Aileen serves as the president and CEO of the Institute for Career Advancement Needs (ICAN), a nonprofit organization whose mission is to develop leaders to transform the organizations and communities they serve.

A UNO Goodrich Scholarship recipient, she earned a bachelor’s and master’s degree in social work. She has worked for the YWCA and Urban League of Nebraska, followed by a career in Human Resources working for First National Bank and UNMC.

She has worked with the Boys and Girls Club of the Midlands and Omaha Home for Boys. She is also an NU Foundation Trustee and was recently appointed to the Omaha Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors.

She was selected as the 2006 Boys and Girls Club of the Midlands Woman of the Year, and 2018 Ak-Sar-Ben Court of Honor recipient.

Thomas served 24 years in law enforcement, including four years as chief of the Omaha Police Department (OPD). He was the first African American to serve as chief of OPD, and during his tenure, improved police-community relations, and reduced the overall crime rate for four consecutive years.

He retired from OPD in 2008 and became president and Chief Executive Officer of Urban League of Nebraska. He currently serves as chief of staff to Omaha mayor Jean Stothert.

He has B.S. in interdisciplinary major in criminal justice and sociology and an M.S. in criminal justice and an option in public administration.

He served as a commissioner on the Board of Directors of the Commission on Accreditation for Law Enforcement Agencies (CALEA), and co-chairs the Douglas County’s Juvenile Detention Alternatives Initiative.

He was inducted into the Boys and Girls Club of America Hall of Fame in 2004. He received the Whitney M. Young Jr. Service Award from the Boys Scouts of America-Mid America Council in 2019.

They have been married for 39 years and have three children and two grandsons.
Debra K. Anderson, Ph.D., MSW, has more than 35 years of experience in child welfare, mental health, and education. She is currently the district mental health liaison for Papillion La Vista Community Schools where she works to ensure that students have access to quality mental health support. She is an adjunct professor and program manager at the University of Nebraska at Omaha’s Grace Abbott School of Social Work.

Anderson served as deputy director at Project Harmony Child Advocacy Center and was the founding director of a school-based mental health program and a national child abuse and neglect training institute. She has worked as a consultant and professional associate for Action for Child Protection in Charlotte, North Carolina; technical assistant for the Nebraska Child Abuse Prevention Fund Board; and child protective service supervisor with the Nebraska Department of Social Services.

Anderson holds a bachelor’s degree in social work from the University of Mary, and a master’s degree in social work from the University of Missouri. She earned a doctorate in public administration from the University of Nebraska at Omaha in 2000.

She has shared her expertise at national and international conferences including the National Children’s Alliance Leadership Conference, the National Conference on School Mental Health and the International Conference on Child and Family Maltreatment. She has contributed to several books, journals, and other publications on child welfare and social work.

Anderson currently serves on the Board of Directors for the NExT Foundation and Lift-Up Sarpy County, Community Collaborative; is a member of BRIDGE Advisory Board; a community representative for the Nebraska Methodist College, Institutional Review Board Committee; a member of the Nebraska School Mental Health Conference Steering Committee; and a co-founder and member of the Nebraska School Mental Health Collaborative. She is also a member of the Dean’s Advisory Committee for UNO’s College of Public Affairs and Community Service.

Rick Lanoha is president and chief executive officer of Kiewit Corporation. He’s also a member of Kiewit’s Executive Leadership Committee and was elected to the board of directors in 2009.

Lanoha was promoted to CEO in 2020 after overseeing all company operations as chief operating officer beginning in 2016. He began his Kiewit career in 1986 as a part-time employee and soon after joined the company’s Southern California District working as a field engineer, superintendent, and project manager.

In 2000, he began to take on more senior roles including area manager, district manager, senior vice president, and division manager.

In 2010, he was named executive vice president of Kiewit Industrial Group and was responsible for the Kiewit Energy, Cherne Contracting Corp., Kiewit Power, and The Industrial Company (TIC) divisions of Kiewit. In 2012, he was promoted to president of Kiewit Energy Group, overseeing its two divisions – Kiewit Oil, Gas & Chemical and Kiewit Power.

He has a bachelor’s degree in construction engineering from the University of Nebraska at Omaha. He currently sits on the board of Valmont Industries, Inc. and is a member of Business Roundtable, an association of CEOs of leading U.S. companies.
Omaha has been home for Vogltanz for 22 years. She grew up attending Shakespeare on the Green hosted in Elmwood Park, a summer picnic tradition with her friends and family. She enjoys visiting local coffee shops, eating watermelon, and taking her daily naps. Her friends describe her as “caffeine in human form.” She did not want to attend college because in her mind it would be “just more school.” Thanks to her friends, Morgan Dickey and William Scheapner recommending the CBA Scholars Academy Scholarship program, she attended UNO.

She will be receiving her Bachelor of Science in business administration with concentrations in human resources and management & leadership. She has been a member of the Student Marketing Association, Students in Leadership & Management, and the College of Business Administration Dean’s Student Advisory Council. She served as treasurer, vice president, and president of the Human Resource Association, student ambassador for Beta Gamma Sigma, and was a student worker for the CBA Scholars Academy.

Her favorite moments from college include speaking at the dedication ceremony for the Rod Rhoden Business Innovation Center in Mammel Hall, traveling to France on a study abroad trip with the CBA Scholars Academy, and creating a community of lifelong role models, mentors, and friends.

After graduation, she will pursue a career in HR with a focus in the professional development facet of training. She hopes to eventually consult executive leadership teams on how to communicate effectively with younger generations joining the workforce. She is incredibly grateful for her time of growth and learning at UNO and is excited to apply her knowledge from the classroom to the real world and be a UNO Maverick for life!

A university is not bricks and mortar, not solely bricks and mortar.

It is flesh and bone, dreams and reality, promise and fulfillment.

Its totality is too broad for canvas, too elusive for print.

It has moods and ages, like a person. Its seasons are all growing seasons and the harvests ever secure.

A university is, above all, an experience. It exists in the hearts and minds of those who draw from its wisdom and add to its reputation.

A university is a place, yes, but a place of the spirit.

It is described, forever after, by its family, not as architecture, but as personality and precept and conversion.

A university is what its alumni have become.

They are its voice to the world.

Some alumni achieve headlines, bear titles, manage corporations, represent constituents, build, create, publicize, minister, protect, teach.

Some labor less conspicuously, contributing from the depths of their talents, fostering understanding, transmitting appreciation.

They speak for us, our alumni. And they speak well.

The Late Robert T. Reilly, UNO Professor Emeritus
