

UNO SALUTES OUR MILITARY

November

4

Homeless Veteran Stand Down

Volunteer with VA staff to provide food, clothing & health screenings for homeless & at-risk Veterans. Set-up begins at 9am. Volunteers can help from 10AM-2PM on Milo Bail Student Center's 2nd floor. Volunteers are fed! See more info & register to volunteer: https://bit.ly/volunteer_vet_stand_down

November

8

Reveille & Retreat in the Pep Bowl

UNO's AFROTC Det. 470 will conduct two 15-minute time-honored traditions: Reveille & Retreat. "Reveille", a flag raising ceremony, begins at 7:45AM. "Retreat", a flag-lowering ceremony, begins at 4PM. Spectators are encouraged to come!

November

9

The Face of War Podcast Panel

UNO's College of Public Affairs & Community Service hosts an interactive panel presentation with Q&A featuring the contributors of the UNO's "Face of War" podcast. Join in CPACS Room 132 at 4PM to join. Listen: https://bit.ly/listen_faceofwar

November

10

Native Americans in Military History

Located in the Milo Bail Student Center at 10AM, sit in on a conversation with Dwight Howe, a member of the Omaha Ponca tribe. He will offer his unique perspective on Native Americans in U.S. Military History. Immediately after, guests are invited to check out the Veteran Art Exhibit for light hours d'oeuvres.

November

10 & 11

Veteran Art Exhibit

Stop into the Military-Connected Resource Center (MBSC 117) to view the Traveling Women Veterans Art Exhibit. It features a variety of 3D & canvas pieces from talented, local veteran artists. Appetizers served on November 10, from 11AM-4PM.

All
Month
Long

Veterans' Library Display

Check out the military-themed display cases at UNO's Criss Library the entire month of November. The Military-Connected Resource Center has compiled various library books and movies highlighting the U.S. military throughout the centuries.

UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA AT OMAHA

MILITARY-CONNECTED RESOURCE CENTER

125 Volunteers Needed

For the
VA Nebraska-Western Iowa Health Care System

★★★
STANDDOWN
★★★

Friday, November 4, 2022
9 a.m. to 2:00 p.m.

UNO Milo Bail Student Center
6203 University Drive N. | Omaha, Nebraska

The Homeless Veteran Stand Down is an outreach event where homeless Veterans are provided with a broad range of necessities including food, clothing, medical, legal and mental health assistance, job counseling and referrals. Minimum age to volunteer is 19 years old. Volunteers will be doing a lot of walking, standing, and asked to assist with carrying a duffel bag for clothing and other items. Volunteers work directly with Veterans to guide them to the various service and information providers' booths.

Sign Up:

<https://volunteersignup.org/HCYHT>

Contact: Kari Bealer at 402-995-3284

Media/Standdown/2015/Omaha Standdown Volunteers 10-19

VA

U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs

Veterans Health Administration:
Nebraska-Western Iowa Health Care System