Interested in getting your ATD Master Performance Consultant certification in Omaha?

MASTER PERFORMANCE CONSULTANT™ PROGRAM

The Nebraska Business Development Center invites you to join us and complete the Master Performance Consultant Program right here in Omaha. If you can participate, let us know ASAP! We will need a minimum of eight participants to bring this event to UNO's College of Business Administration.

BONUS! The more who sign up the lower your fee will be, so share the news with your colleagues.

About the program

As more organizations focus on delivering results through improved systems and processes, it is important for performance consultants to have the tools necessary to achieve that goal. The ATD Master Performance Consultant Program will provide you with a unique opportunity to assess, refine, and enhance your skills, while gaining hands-on experience.

In this program, you will:

1. Engage in online learning community
2. Participate in a four-day interactive course to assess and extend your mastery
3. Complete a Capstone Performance Consulting Project to demonstrate your ability to apply what you have learned in a real-world environment.

How you will benefit:

- Connection to a cohort of learning professionals
- Access to the ATD comprehensive guide to performance improvement
- Industry-recognized certificate—ATD Master Performance Consultant
- Experience with three consulting-in-action peer discussions
- Capstone Performance Consulting Project and elective
- Robust participant guide with resources to take back to your job.

RESERVE YOUR SEAT TODAY! ONLY 16 AVAILABLE.
