

CONSCIOUS COLLEGE ROAD TOUR 2016

MONDAY, MARCH 28TH

UNO's Office of Sustainability is pleased to announce that UNO has been selected as one of the stops of the Conscious College Road Tour (CCRT), a unique, interactive, hands-on opportunity for students to become informed about conscious living. Join UNO and Turning Green, organizers of CCRT 2016, throughout the day on Monday, March 28th for free promotional materials, activities, and much more.

The Conscious Information Station

11 A.M.—3 P.M. | Scott Café

The conscious information station is focused on six key life-style categories: food, style, zero waste, space, clean, and body. The interactive tables feature FREE product samples, information boards, hands-on demonstrations, activities, and in-depth conversations.

CCRT Town Hall Meeting

6P.M.—8:30 P.M. | CPACS 132/132D

An evening gathering for students, faculty, and school leaders to brainstorm and develop one student-led sustainability initiative that the Turning Green team will support until completion. Dinner will be provided by Chipotle and space is limited. To reserve your spot at the Town Hall meeting, RSVP by going to UNO's Office of Sustainability's MavSync Portal.
