Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion Template 2022-2023

Section 1: General Information

DEI Initiative Name CFAM Commissions	Unit Name College of CFAM
Collaborating Unit(s) ( if any )
Initiative Category Inclusion <input type="button" value="v"/>

Section 2: Initiative's Purpose

The College of Communication, Fine Arts and Media strives to increase the inclusion of art works that are created by historically marginalized creators. These commissions could also be in the form of a high-level event/speaker who is from a historically marginalized population.

Section 3: Initiative's Target Population

The target audience is the campus community including faculty, staff, students, and UNO visitors.

Section 4: Initiative's Description:

Each year, the college will commission an original piece of artwork OR hold a prominent event on campus by a creator from a historically marginalized population.

To ensure that all units within the college have an opportunity to participate in this initiative the following rotation has been established:

- 2022: School of the Arts, Visual Art
- 2023: School of Communication, Guest Speaker
- 2024: School of Music, Composition for orchestra and choir
- 2025: School of the Arts
- 2026: School of Communication
- 2027: School of Music
