ABOUT US

As a Metropolitan University, meaningful and impactful community engagement and partnerships are central to UNO's mission. The Office of Engagement is a bridge between our faculty, staff, students, and campus units to individuals, families, and neighborhoods, as well as the business, government, educational and nonprofit sectors.

In this role, the Office of Engagement is:

- Offering the community easy pathways for campus access, partnerships, and collaboration.
- Expanding opportunities for our students for community service and experiential learning.
- Inspiring our students to be engaged, life-long contributors to their communities.
- Facilitating opportunities for the co-creation and sharing of knowledge between faculty and community partners.
- Measuring and elevating awareness of UNO's engagement efforts.

OFFICE OF ENGAGEMENT UNITS, DEPARTMENTS, AND INITIATIVES

The Office of Engagement supports the full spectrum of engaged research, creative activity, teaching, learning, and community service that occurs every day across the UNO campus. In doing so, it is home to a number of UNO's premier engagement assets, including:

- The Barbara Weitz Community Engagement Center
- The UNO Service Learning Academy
- The Community Engagement Partnership Initiative
- Signature Service Days
- The Community Engaged Scholar Transcript Designation
