Title IX Covid-19 Plan

Daily Operations
The Interim Title IX Coordinator and Investigator will be moving to an off campus working model. Contact with the Title IX office can be made by calling or emailing. Arrangements will be made to meet via Zoom or teleconference, depending on the need and resources of the individual contacting Title IX. We will continue to be adaptable and dynamic to meet the needs of our community.

Supportive/Interim Measures
The Title IX Office is dedicated to ensuring continuity of supportive and interim measures for individuals at UNO. We understand that needs can shift during this time, so we welcome communication with our office so we may best support our students, faculty, and staff. If assistance is needed please contact the Interim Title IX Coordinator at 402.554.2120.

Resources at UNO
Victim/Survivor Advocacy Confidential on-campus advocates, Jessi and Nicole, are available to meet and talk you through all of the options and resources available so that you can make informed decisions about taking care of yourself and any safety, medical, academic, reporting questions or needs you may have. Please call them at 402.554.2030 or email Nicole at nnaatz@unomaha.edu for an appointment. For more information on advocacy, please visit: https://www.unomaha.edu/student-life/inclusion/gender-and-sexuality-resource-center/victim-survivor-resources/advocates.php.

Counselors in Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS) are available to meet with students free of charge for confidential appointments. To schedule and make an appointment, please contact them at 402.554.2409. Their office is currently located on the first floor of the H&K Building. Their website is: https://www.unomaha.edu/student-life/wellness/counseling-and-psychological-services/index.php

Public Safety is available to students in a variety of capacities. Should you need them and if the issue is not an emergency, please call them at 402.554.2648. If you are on campus and have an emergency, their emergency number is 4.2911 (402.554.2911). Officers in this unit can help you by taking a police report, navigating the police department of the city, or providing escort services on campus. Their website is: https://www.unomaha.edu/public-safety/index.php

Accessibility Services Center (ASC) collaborates with students, administrators, faculty, and staff to ensure access to reasonable and appropriate student disability accommodations for academic programs, student involvement, and residence life. https://www.unomaha.edu/student-life/accessibility/index.php
