Celebrating the U.S. Constitution
Join us for Campus Constitution Events

Constitution Day celebrates the signing of the U.S. Constitution September 17, 1787. In honor of this holiday UNO will host three events.

Monday, September 14
1:00 P.M.
Community Engagement Center (CEC) 201, 205, 209

MAGNA CARTA & THE CONSTITUTION
Dr. James R. Stoner, Jr., Professor and Director of the Eric Voegelin Institute at Louisiana State University will lead a discussion about the Magna Carta’s role as a promise of liberty and its relationship to law. Join us as we consider lessons drawn from these documents to threats against law and liberty in contemporary times.

This event is sponsored by the UNO College of A&S and the Department of Political Science.

Thursday, September 17
10:00 A.M. – 3 P.M.
Milo Bail Student Center

VOTER REGISTRATION DRIVE
The League of Women Voters will host a Voter Registration Drive at the UNO MBSC Outdoor Plaza.

*A rain date is scheduled for Monday, September 21st, from 10:00 A.M. - 3:00 P.M. at the Outdoor Plaza or FoodCourt.

Thursday, September 17
12:00 A.M – 2:00 P.M.
Community Engagement Center

“WE THE PEOPLE...”
“We the People . . . Three Words that Changed the World” - UNO Weitz Community Engagement Center nonprofit partner, Why Arts? will host a Constitution Day collective art project conceptualized by artist Paula Wallace. Join us at the Weitz CEC outdoor plaza or indoor atrium to get involved and have fun painting and contributing your ideas to this community art piece.

For more information: CHRISSIE DEUTSCH, WEITZ FELLOW | 402-554-4043 | cdeutsch@unomaha.edu