What can I do with a major in GERONTOLOGY

Career Options
- Social Worker
- Nursing and Home Health Aides
- Social and Health Services Assistants
- Medical and Health Services Manager
- Social Scientists
- Health Care Professionals*

*Additional certification or further education needed

Transferable Skills Gained
- Problem-solving
- Communication
- Organizational skills
- Interpersonal skills
- Time-management skills
- Leadership skills
- Analytical skills
- Listening skills

Employment Areas
- Hospitals
- Doctors’ Offices
- Nursing Homes
- Non-Profit Organizations
- Family Agencies
- Government Agencies
- Adult Daycare Center

Informational Websites
- UNO Department of Gerontology: gerontology.unomaha.edu
- AARP: aarp.org
- American Society on Aging: asaging.org
- Assn for Gerontology in Higher Education: aghe.org
- Gerontological Society of America: geron.org
- American Assn for Geriatric Psychiatry: aagponline.org

Extracurricular Opportunities
- Actively participate in events hosted by the Gerontology Department
- Gain volunteer or part-time experience working with geriatric population
- Complete an internship related to gerontology