RESIDENCE HALL COUNCILS

Maverick Village Residence Hall Council (MVRHC) and University Village Residence Hall Council (UVRHC) are the voices of students living on campus. Each council's meetings are for planning social events and discussing any concerns students living on campus may have about their housing experience. Executive positions are a great way for students to develop leadership skills, help build a community with other students, and add experience to their résumé. Want to get involved? There are officer positions available. Attend our weekly meetings and events. Meeting times will be announced at the beginning of the fall semester. Email unohousing@unomaha.edu for more info.

CAMPUS TRADITIONS

New Student Convocation, Durango Days, Homecoming, and De-Stress Fest are just a few of our proud campus traditions.

RESIDENCE HALL ASSOCIATION

UNO's Residence Hall Association (RHA) is the governing and legislative body for the residential population. RHA strives to provide input and suggestions to housing administrators in an effort to improve the living experience on campus. NATIONAL RESIDENCE HALL HONORARY

The National Residence Hall Honorary (NRHH) is a leadership, service, and recognition honor society specifically for student leaders living on campus. The UNO Bill Pickett NRHH Chapter consists of student leaders living on campus who represent the top 1% of the student leaders within campus housing. Members are nominated and inducted in the spring each year.

Your Guide to LIVING WITH ROOMMATES

DISCUSS COMMON ISSUES

Overnight Guests

Unannounced, too frequent, or disrespectful behavior

Noise Levels

Volume levels of music/TV or loud guests

Food

Sharing or cooking

Common Cleaning

Sharing supplies, different definitions of clean, taking out trash, washing dishes, or clutter

Policy Violations

A roommate violating policies within the apartment

Temperature in Apartment

Deciding on a temperature that works for everyone

IT'S OK TO COMPROMISE

Remember that four roommates means four ways of living. You should be prepared to adjust your expectations according to your roommates and vice-versa. For example, if you think the trash should be taken out twice a week, but your roommates think once every two weeks is okay, a good compromise could be to take out the trash once a week. Willingness to compromise will make living with roommates more enjoyable.

SHOW RESPECT

No matter the differences between roommates, you all should respect one another. Keep in mind that different does not mean bad. In fact, living with roommates from various backgrounds is a great opportunity to learn about different lifestyles, opinions, and cultures. If you're committed to respecting those around you, you can live harmoniously with anyone.

BE RESPONSIBLE

Remember to take responsibility for your own space. You and your roommates have to be comfortable with everything that goes on in the apartment. At the beginning of the year, your RA will help you complete a Roommate Agreement with all of your roommates. This is a required step to live on campus. and will help start the conversation among roommates about personal living preferences and how to best use the space.

COMMUNICATION IS KEY

For a successful and healthy roommate relationship, the lines of communication must be open. Talk in person and avoid texting, social media, and leaving notes. You can't expect your roommates to read your mind, so be clear about your expectations, feelings, and differences.

KNOW THE RULES

You have a unique opportunity to live in a community with other students. To ensure that this is a positive experience for everyone, make yourself familiar with our community policy book. You can find this at housing.unomaha.edu.

ADDRESSING AN ISSUE

Unfortunately, conflicts are almost inevitable when four individuals share one space. Addressing it properly will help resolve issues and ideally prevent future occurrences. Below are three steps for addressing an issue with your new roommate(s).

1 COMMUNICATE YOUR EXPECTATIONS

A roommate can't change a behavior if they don't know that there is a concern. It's your responsibility to talk face-to-face with your roommate(s). Let them know what the concern is and try to reach a common understanding or compromise.

2 TALK TO YOUR RESIDENT ASSISTANT

If you've discussed the issue with your roommate(s), but the issue continues, you should let your RA know. Staff members are trained to help you resolve conflicts by assisting in a mediated conversation. Mediation offers roommates a safe space to discuss any issues. Your RA will help you and your roommates come to a solution and create a plan of action.

3 SOMETIMES YOU NEED A LITTLE SPACE

If all of your attempts at resolving roommate issues have been unsuccessful, you can request a new room. Keep in mind that you can't request that a roommate be moved from your current apartment. New room requests can only be processed if a different room is available and has been approved by the HRL staff. This is a last resort for roommates in conflict. The fee to switch rooms is $100.00.

ROOMMATE TIP

You and your roommate(s) will be different. Keep a positive attitude and an open mind.

ROOMMATE TIP

Talk face-to-face with your roommates whenever possible. Leaving notes or sending texts or emails is not as effective.

OUR COMMITMENT TO STUDENT SAFETY

RESPONSIBILITIES OF PUBLIC SAFETY

- Protect life and property
- Provide building and exterior patrol
- Investigate criminal offenses
- Control the University Access System
- Provide emergency first-aid response for on-campus incidents

TEXT MESSAGE ALERTS

UNO has an emergency alert messaging system to provide timely warning for critical situations that may affect the university community. Messages are delivered in a variety of ways from overhead pages, PC alerts, email, social media alerts, and text messages. UNO uses text messaging to reach students wherever they are when alerts are sent. This is a free service which UNO students are automatically enrolled in, but have the option to opt out of.

BLUE LIGHT EMERGENCY PHONES

Blue light emergency phones are located across campus. Use the phone to report emergencies or contact Public Safety for other assistance.

BIAS ASSESSMENT AND RESPONSE TEAM

UNO's Bias Assessment and Response Team (BART) gathers information about non-emergency bias incidents and supports those who have become or witnessed someone become a target of an act of bias. It is also BART's goal to increase opportunities for communication and restorative justice for students, staff, and faculty.

BEHAVIORAL REVIEW TEAM

As an interdisciplinary partnership, the university's Behavioral Review Team (BRT) is the network of existing resources for prevention and early intervention of campus situations. These situations can sometimes involve students experiencing distress or engaging in harmful or disruptive behaviors. In support of UNO students, the BRT develops intervention and support strategies, offers case coordination, regularly reviews incidents, and recommends actions that address the situation. The BRT exists to make sure that students are not only safe, but also thriving on campus.

SPEAK UP

We want every student to feel valued and respected. Your experience as a member of the university community matters to us. As a student, you have many resources to report and share your concerns.

EMERGENCY PROCEDURES

Winter Weather

Check the UNO website for any specific information about classes being cancelled. You will also receive a UNO text alert in the case of classes being cancelled.

Power Outage

If you experience a power outage, call the front desk or the on-call RA if after hours.

EMERGENCY PROCEDURES (CONT'D)

Maintenance

Contact the on duty RA if you experience any issues with a leaking sink, plumbing issues, or issues with your heating or A/C unit. Non-emergency maintenance requests should be reported on unohousing.freshdesk.com.

Natural Gas

If you smell natural gas, leave the apartment. Do not use a light switch, telephone, or cell phone. Immediately report the issue to housing staff.

Fire

You must exit your apartment and report to your clubhouse when a fire alarm is sounding in your building. Never hang anything on sprinkler heads. Lock your door, and take your keys and ID with you.

Tornado

Maverick Village and University Village residents will be notified of a tornado warning via the Campus Wide Paging System speaker in every apartment. MV students should go to the lower level of the MV Clubhouse. UV students should go to the lower level of the Weber Fine Arts Building.

UNO Lockdown

In the event of a hostile or emergency situation on campus or in the surrounding community, the university may enact "Shelter in Place." In this situation, the Campus Wide Paging System would instruct all members of the campus community to stay in place. All residents and staff members should follow the directions given through the broadcast system.

CENTRALIZED BILLING

UNO has a centralized billing system. Access your bill via your MavLINK account or a parent may be set up as guest to your account.

HRL BILLING PROCESS

Any charges incurred for tuition and fees and housing will appear on one statement. All other billing such as lock outs, damages, recores, and other charges will be billed directly from housing to the student and will not be on MavLINK. Payments made for housing are applied to tuition and fees first on the centralized bill. Unpaid bills are subject to late fees. If you are awarded scholarships and financial aid, it will be credited to your UNO Student Account and will be applied against your tuition, fees, and housing. This is dispersed once in the fall and once in the spring. All scholarships and financial aid that is applied to MavLINK goes towards tuition and fees first, then is applied to housing.

For questions related to charges or payments towards your housing on your centralized bill, please contact Housing and Residence Life at 402.554.6605.

STUDENT CODE OF CONDUCT

Any student removed from campus housing for student conduct reasons will be held liable for the terms of their contract. Violating student conduct policies does not provide students the ability to end their housing contract. Students looking to end their housing contract forfeit their $200 deposit for the administrative cancellation fee. Also, students are still responsible for the remainder of their housing contract bills.

CANCELLATION POLICY

For details on the cancellation policy, please see your housing contract or email unohousing@unomaha.edu for more info.
