

University of Nebraska at Omaha LEP Statement

Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, which prohibits discrimination based on race, color, or national origin (including limited English proficiency). The University of Nebraska at Omaha is committed to the accessibility of services to those with Limited English Proficiency (LEP). To that end, the University will make available appropriate alternative language formats to those with limited English proficiency upon request to ensure accessibility of university related services and supports.

Language Assistance Measures

Language assistance measures are “communication accommodations” that enable LEP persons to access program services and or experience them at an acceptable level. These measures include but are not limited to the following examples:

- Applications and forms translated into multiple languages.
- Notification of availability of services and programs to translate/multiple languages.
- Telephone relay interpretation (for public notification and general information).
- Low or mixed-literacy and bilingual materials.
- Program volunteers and staff who are bilingual or multi-lingual.

International students should contact UNO International Programs for assistance.
