

What is Title IX?

Title IX of the Education Amendments Act of 1972 said that “No person in the United States shall, on the basis of sex, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any education program or activity receiving Federal financial assistance.” UNO adheres to Title IX and addresses sex-based misconduct and discrimination through University of Nebraska policies and procedures.

What behaviors or actions are covered by these policies?

Sex-based discrimination may take the form of disparate impact or disparate treatment. Discrimination can also occur in the form of sexual misconduct. Sexual misconduct includes:

- Dating/Domestic Violence
- Sexual Harassment
- Stalking
- Sexual Exploitation
- Sexual Assault
  - Rape
  - Fondling
  - Incest
  - Statutory Rape

Reporting Responsibility

All individuals are expected to promptly report conduct that may violate the University Sexual Misconduct Policy to the University. If you hear about something that may be sexual misconduct, it should be reported to the Title IX Coordinator Sarah Weil.

How do I report sexual misconduct?

You can report sexual misconduct in a number of different ways:

- Call the Title IX Coordinator at 402.554.2120
- Visit the Title IX Office in EAB 211
