Got an Idea? Learn How to Protect It!

Monday, November 25th
Noon-1pm
UNO MBSC, Rm 220

Presented by
Dr. Catherine Murari-Kanti
UNeMed

About the talk

All students, faculty, and staff that may have a new discovery, concept, design, device, composition, system or software or teaching program are welcome to attend and learn how to disclose and protect their ideas.

The following topics will be discussed:

- What is technology transfer?
- Intellectual Property
- Protecting your intellectual property
- Seeking industry partners
- Is a Start-up the way to go?

About Dr. Catherine Murari- Kanti

Dr. Catherine Murari-Kanti is a Licensing Specialist at UNeMed Corporation, the technology transfer and commercialization office for the University of Nebraska Medical Center (UNMC) and the University of Nebraska at Omaha (UNO).

Dr. Murari-Kanti and UNeMed works with faculty, students and staff to help commercialize innovative ideas that have the potential to improve public health in Nebraska and beyond. As a Licensing Specialist, she is responsible to evaluate UNMC’s and UNO’s inventions and discoveries and check for commercial and patent viability.

As part of her role, she engages with faculty, staff and students to discuss their inventions, performs prior-art searches to check for patentability and seek licensing rights to the University of Nebraska’s technologies through marketing activities with industrial partners.

Hosted by UNO WiSTEM Pro² | unowistempro2@unomaha.edu | wistempro2.unomaha.edu