Fall Greetings

What a glorious autumn. We hope you have been able to enjoy this beautiful weather!

UNOWC is off to a great start. Our first event, the Scholarship Award Dinner, was absolutely wonderful. The setting was lovely, the food delicious, the companionship delightful, and the scholarship winners grateful. This evening was possible thanks to the hard work and efforts of Jennifer Katz, Amy Schlinder, and Janet Pol and her scholarship committee. Sincere thanks are also extended to Chancellor John and Honorary UNOWC President Jan Christensen. It was a memorable event to celebrate our ten scholarship winners, who each received a $1000 toward their tuition. These awards are made possible because of your generosity.

Our interest groups are also up and running. The General Book Group met in October, and so did the Lunch Bunch. The Mystery Book Club, led by Karen Garver, is also looking for new members to join. For those of you who like crafts, especially knitting, Angelika can also provide basic knitting lessons or instruction if you are interested in learning. Contact her angelikawalker@unomaha.edu if you are interested in joining. If you have a special interest and would like to establish a new interest group within UNOWC, please let either of us know so that we can initiate it at our next meeting.

Hopefully you have received an email invitation to our next meeting: a tour of UNO’s new Baxter Arena on Thursday, November 5th. Another copy of the invitation is enclosed on page 3 of this issue. On page 4 is another copy of our Membership Form, in case you haven’t sent in your dues yet.

Looking forward to seeing you in November,

Laraine and Angelika

Minutes of First General Meeting
Monday, September 28, 2015, 5:30 p.m.
UNO Thompson Alumni Center

The evening was opened by Co-Presidents, Laraine Conway and Angelika Walker, offering a welcome back to the new school and club year.

Honorary President, Jan Christensen was introduced and she offered a welcome from Chancellor Christensen as well. She mentioned the importance of UNO to her family and hoped that the scholarship recipients attending would feel the same warmth and family feeling that UNO offers.

Co-President Conway thanked Chancellor and Mrs. Christensen for hosting the reception and dinner. Following the dinner, committee reports included:

Scholarship: Chairman Janet Pol introduced and thanked the committee that selected this year’s recipients. The student recipients attending the dinner were introduced and presented certificates. Each woman offered thanks to those attending. Each scholarship was for $1000.

Co-President Walker introduced this year’s officers and committee chairman and thanked them for their service to the club.

Program: Co-Chair Amy Schindler reviewed the upcoming programs for the year and reminded members that invitations would be sent for each meeting by email.

Treasurer: Anne Carroll presented the budget that was recommended by the club’s executive committee. It was moved and seconded to approve the budget as presented.

Communications Chair: Elaine Allen announced that a newsletter would be sent before each large membership event and any notices from special interest groups can be sent to her to include in the newsletter. She is also working on reestablishing the club webpage and new Facebook page with her committee.

Membership: Mary Bernier reported the club is interested in expanding membership and will extend membership to female UNO alumni on a trial basis to gauge interest.

Courtesy: Inez Petrie requested any information that might be important for her to know about club members be sent to her at tpetrie@cox.net.

Ladies Lunch Mob: Janine Brooks said she will offer programs in October and November. Information will be emailed to members.

Need Items for UNOWC’s Archives
UNOWC Historian Ann Newton would appreciate receiving any papers that members or past members have from the former UNO Faculty Women’s Club. You can reach her at 402-556-5881 or email: Ann-Newton@cox.net. Past meeting minutes from past secretaries would be especially welcome. All historical material will eventually go to the UNO Archives. Thanks for helping.

Have you sent your UNOWC dues in for this year?
The 2015 – 2016 Membership form is on Page 4. Send your dues check to Treasurer Anne Carroll today! Save yourself a stamp and add another check for UNOWC Scholarships, too.

Please read the following before writing your check(s)!
The main mission of the UNOWC is to support scholarships for non-traditional students. The UNOWC would like all funds to pass through its account. Writing two checks and sending both to the UNOWC box allows the treasurer to give credit to the club for donations made to the NU Foundation.

If you want to claim the donation on your income tax, you should write one check for dues to the UNOWC and another for scholarship to the NU Foundation. Please send both checks to the UNOWC mailbox. The treasurer will send the scholarship checks written to the Foundation for processing, which will allow you to claim your donation on your income tax. If you write ONE check to the UNOWC for dues and a scholarship donation, you should not claim it on your income tax. The UNOWC is not a 501(c)(3) entity, but the Foundation is.

Make membership check payable to UNOWC and, if donating to a scholarship, another check payable to the NU Foundation. Mail to address below:

Ten UNO students were awarded UNO Women’s Club scholarships during the Scholarship Dinner on Monday, September 28, 2015. The recipients (along with the Scholarship name): Megan Carr (Stedman), Shelley Jorgensen (Weber), Samantha Robb (Newton), Gabrielle Dalton (Bernier), Sapphire Anderson and Jade Jensen (Naylor), Cynthia Koenig-Warnke (Bail), Ku-Ulei Hose (UNOWC-Patach), Danielle Bradbury and Julie Zetterman (UNOWC). Anet Pol, Scholarship Chair, introduced each of the six women who were able to attend the event and accept their awards in person (pictured above).

UNO Women’s Club,

I wanted to take this opportunity to thank you again for supporting UNO students through your generous scholarship program. My guest and I were so honored to be a part of the Women’s Club Scholarship Dinner and I truly appreciated the experience. Thank you!

Sapphire Andersen, 2015 Scholarship recipient
