LUNCH & LAW: FALL 2023 CLASS

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

PA 8600-320 Fall 2023 | Tuesdays 12-1 PM on zoom

CLASS DESCRIPTION

Designed with working professionals in mind, this remote lunch-hour course prepares students to engage in knowledgeable discussions about the relationship between public service and the law, including the latest Supreme Court holdings, Nebraska state statutes, nonprofit fiduciary duties, and county codes.

How is the rationale that overturned Roe v. Wade different than the rationale the court used for the last fifty year? What gives the EPA the power to pass rules about greenhouse gases? What are the legal responsibilities of nonprofit workers? How does the law protect government whistle-blowers?

Join us to discover the answers to these and other crucial questions that influence every part of modern life.

CLASS FORMAT

The online video lectures, reading quizzes, and homework assignments prepare you to join an informed conversation with your peers and Dr. Heckler.
